ONE OF THE PARADES THE INDIANS STAGED IN FIFTH GAME

Frank Baker won fame in a world's series some moons ago at Philadelphia by slamming out a home run with two men on bases. In the fifth game of the series between the Indians and Dodgers Pitcher Jim Bagby put himself in Frank's class with the same feat. In the fourth inning Doc Johnston led off for Cleveland with a single and moved around to third on a passed ball and Sewell's grounder. Grimes passed O'Neill intentionally, preferring to take a chance on Bagby. The Cleveland hurler, stinging under the insult, drove the ball into the new right field stands for a home run. In the first inning Smith had hit a homer with Jamieson, Wamby and Speaker on base.

IMPORTANT FIGHT AT SOUTH BEND

SOUTH BEND, Ind., 14.—With the Levinsky-Carpenter bout in history, fans are directing their attention to this city which will be the scene of another elimination match to a temporary go on the evening of October 21 when Harry Greb and Gunboat Smith enter the ring. Floyd Fitzsimmons, Benton Harbor promoter, is negotiating with Champion Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, for a match with the winner here and announces that next July 4th either Greb or the Gunner will face the mighty champion in the new Benton Harbor arena.

It is rather an interesting story how South Bend picked off this important pugilistic carnival. It is being promoted by Eugene Kessler, sporting editor of The Tribune, who grasped the opportunity to bring the two together. Kessler assisted Fitzsimmons in his Benton Harbor championship show Labor Day and came in contact with James Mason, Greb's manager. Mason agreed to return a favor and Kessler immediately asked that he get Greb to box in South Bend. It was agreed and a return bout between Wiggins and Greb was arranged.

But Kessler saw something bigger in the air. Gunboat Smith was turned down his chance with Dempsey by the Massachusetts' commission with the advice that he meet and defeat a leading heavyweight and then go after the champion. Greb was immediately cited as the ideal opponent for Smith and Kessler, having the Pittsburgher under contract, went after the Gunner. Smith at first accepted an offer to take the bout east, to Pittsburgh, but when he learned that Greb would meet him no other place but South Bend, he gave in and signed articles.

TWO MORE COLLEGE STARS JOIN TIGERS

Two more college gridiron stars have been added to the Chicago Tiger pro-football team. They are Pierce, former Michigan giant tackle, and Reeve of Northwestern. Both will appear Sunday against the Detroit Herd at Cub Park. The lineup of the Michigan outfit carries the names of four well-known college players, Grey, Washington-Jefferson, at guard, with Horning, Colgate tackle, next to him. King and Whipple of Notre Dame are the other two. The Herdals walloped Cleveland, 40 to 14, last Sunday and seem to have the pep they had last year, when they lost to the locals, then the Hammond, 7 to 6, in one of the

FAIR WEATHER WILL END SOON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The weather

er bureau today issued a special bulletin announcing that the pleasant weather now prevailing in the middle west and western states is near an end. A disturbance is proceeding along the Alaskan coast and will bring rain and gales in northern Pacific states moving across the middle west, bringing rainy weather and probably local snows in the northwest. The temperature following the disturbance will be the lowest of the season, the bulletin declared.
